Kamiano

Kamiano, the name by which the Hawaiian people called the man the world knew as Father Damien de Veuster, has come to mean more than a name, but to symbolize the Catholic spirit and way of life he brought to Hawaii.

A similar pioneering spirit and philosophy accomplished in the unique Hawaiian tradition is today renewed in his namesake, Damien Memorial High School.

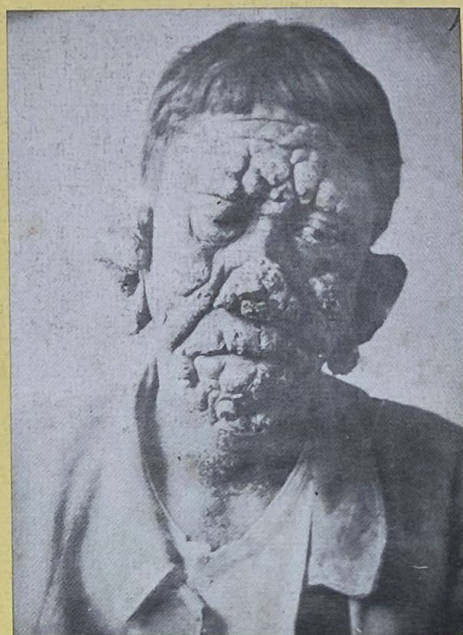

Just as the world reveres Father Damien de Veuster, do we in Hawaii revere this spirit. And just as we commemorate his given name in the school name, do we commemorate his ideals in ours. It seems appropriate then, that this yearbook, the record of our first activities at Damien, share that name, Kamiano.

The many books written about Fr. Damien

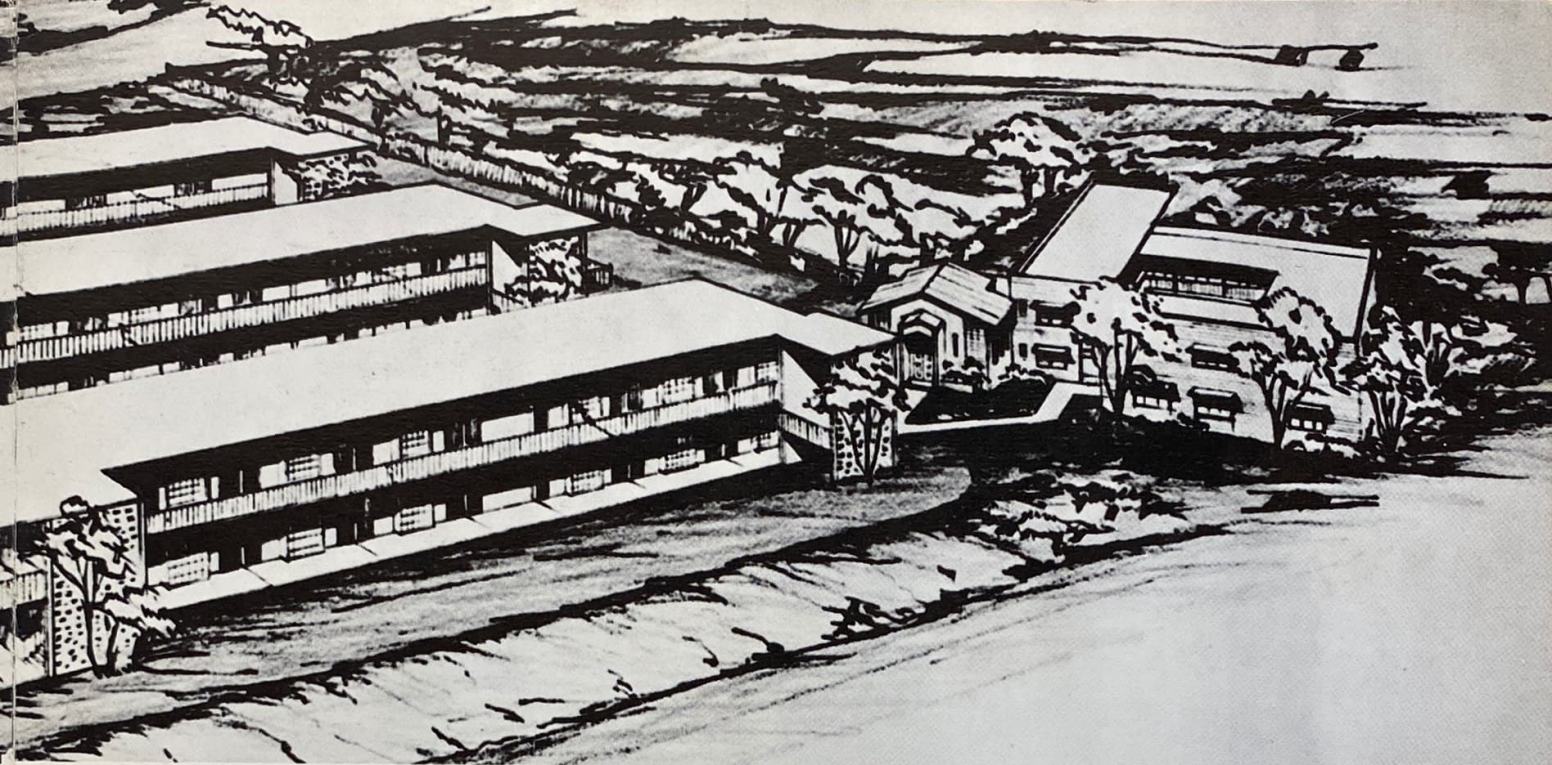

We, the pioneer graduating class of Damien Memorial High School, owe our deepest appreciation to those people who have given so much of themselves, their talents, and their facilities, to aid in the tremendous growth of our school.

With the means and encouragement provided by Bishop Sweeney and Bishop Scanlan, by the many organizations and by the countless unselfish individuals, and acting under the watchful guidance of God, we have seen this campus grow from seven acres of useless land, into a proud, spirited, and progressive institution. Realizing the foundations of this school to be constant and firm, we dedicate to them, our benefactors, this first yearbook, Kamiano 1966.

Our Brothers

We, the first Senior Class, have witnessed the generous and willing self-sacrifice of the Christian Brothers of Ireland in the establishment of our school. Their word and works mirror their motto, "Facere et Docere" and the spirit of their founder, Edmund Ignatius Rice. This selfless dedication will long live in our memory, and we will respect the Brothers as true followers of their founder.

PAAC

Scrapbook

F. Ching, T. Wolfe, G. Fernandez, R. Woodward, H. Leong.

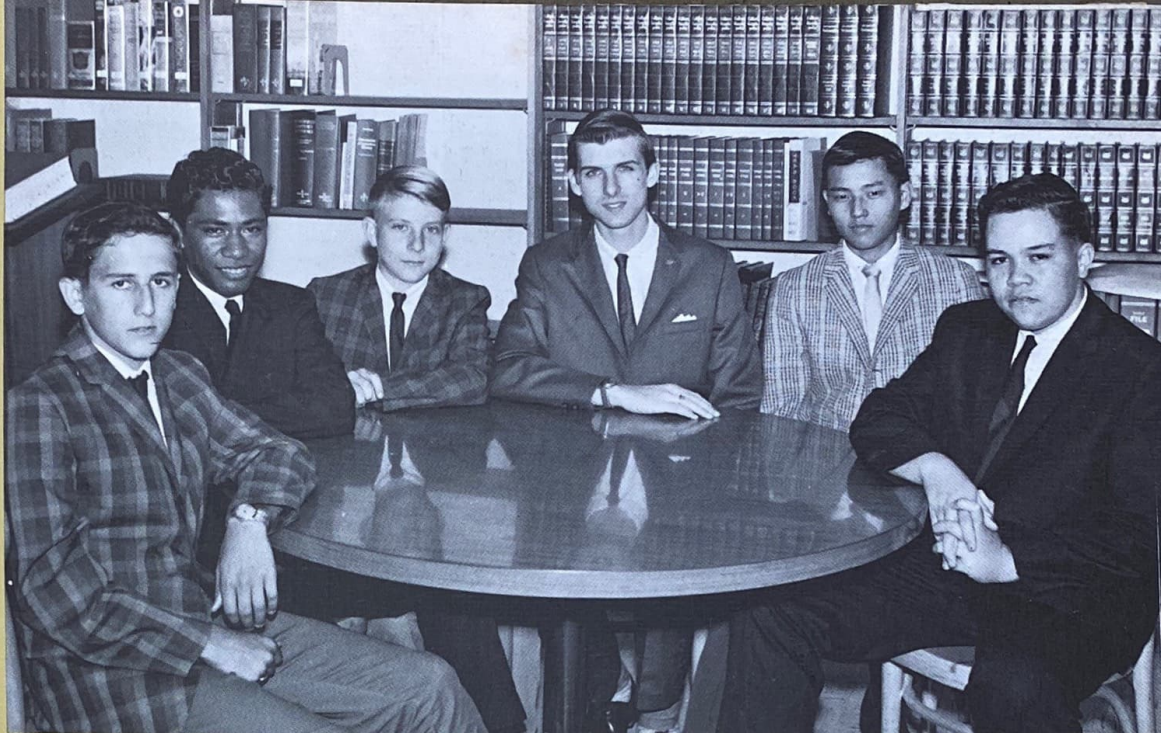

In a school's existence there is always news which will vanish if not collected by some alert students. Here at Damien, we have such a group, headed by Glenn Fernandez, which collects news articles concerning all aspects of the school. Their intent is to keep the treasures of the formative years from being forgotten.

Library

Damien's library, established in September 1964, has grown tremendously since its beginning. Greatly responsible for this expansion is the library staff, which has done a fine job in the organizing, cataloguing, and stocking of books, pamphlets and periodicals.

Prom Committees

Representatives from the Junior and Senior classes, under the leadership of Brother Avendano, worked long and hard. They brought to both classes the biggest social events of the year which will be long remembered.

Dances

Dances, necessary to the social life of any school, showed great organization during the year. All dances, being informal, were well attended and supported by the student body. Organizers and clean-up committees worked enthusiastically, making the year a very successful one for dances.

Back girls, back.

Varsity Basketball

With fourteen boys who try hard, and a coach like Br. Cullerton who dies hard, you have a team with a zeal to win. They showed this zeal by winning a trophy in each of the pre-season tournaments. Filled with high spirits, the Monarchs went out to try and win the ILH championship.

Take a group of young boys who love basketball, then add a coach like Br. Greenan, stir well with hours of practice. Now, what do you have? You have a first rate JV team with the will to win and who set their eyes on the championship and never wavered from it.

Track

Preparing for this highly strenuous sport required much more time than did the actual events, but the results of the many meets proved the wisdom of the lengthy afternoons. Coached by Br. Mastromorino, the track teams proved to be a real credit to the school athletic program.

Leonard and Steve fight for the rebound.

Bernard aims for another strike.

Highlights

As the scholastic year swiftly approaches its conclusion, we take time to flash back upon those glorious events which contributed to the zeal and enthusiasm of the school.

This was a year of firsts, the Homecoming, sung Masses, pep rallies, retreats, and the biggest first, our $50,000 carnival, a success because of the untiring efforts of Mr. Walter Lau and his willing co-workers.

In an effort to insure lively relations with other schools, we established debating, PAAC, and the friendly rivalry of the "Golden Cleat" with St. Louis. A strong feeling of pride and school spirit was shown when the seniors received their class rings. The faithful Saturday crew of workers will always be remembered for their dedication to the school.

This then, was our year. Happy that we have successfully completed our secondary education, yet sad that we are leaving the institution which for four years has instilled in us the Christian way of life, we review these highlights. Our year has ended, and our eyes look to, and anticipate, the future.

The start of a tradition of successful carnivals.

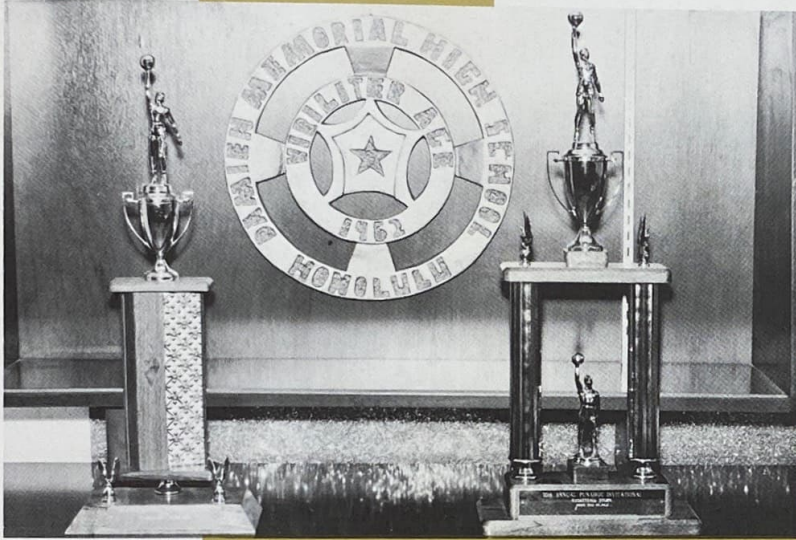

Our first Homecoming Court.

Spirit of the Monarchs.

Invitational Tournament Trophies.

Day of Recollection.

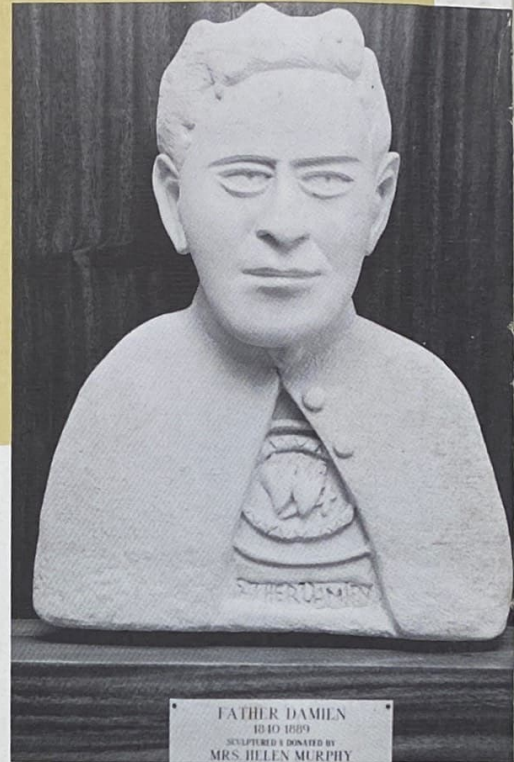

P.T. and the Lancers perform for the Christmas assembly.

The Golden Cleat Trophy held by J. Reeves and B. Lovell.

Father Damien.

Pep Rally.

Christmas Spirit at Damien.
